

ACCOMMODATION IN LEKWA-TEEMANE

THE HISTORY OF LEKWA TEEMANE

Lekwa-Teemane (comprising the towns of Bloemhof and Christiana) is situated in the Bophirima District of the North West Province of South Africa. Bophirima underwent a name change to the Dr. Ruth Segomotsi Mompati District Municipality recently.

Christiana is an agricultural town situated on the banks of the Vaal River. The town was established in 1870 when diamonds were discovered in the river banks of the Vaal River. Christiana was named after Christina Meyer, only daughter of the Transvaal President Andries Pretorius. Not far from Christiana the town Bloemhof is an agricultural town. Bloemhof was founded in 1864 when diamonds were discovered in the area. The town was established on the farm owned by John Barclay, who survived the HMS Birkenhead shipwreck in 1852. The place became known as Bloemhof (flower court) because of the lovely gardens that were planted by Barclay's daughter.

Present day Lekwa-Teemane consists of Bloemhof (and surrounding farm areas), Boitumelong, Christiana (and surrounding farm areas), Coverdale, Geluksoord, Salamat and Utlwanang. The total geographical area of the municipality is 3681.2560 square kilometres

VILLA DE LA ROSA

Villa de la Rosa Guest House Bloemhof offers luxury suites. Our accommodation is in quiet, safe surroundings, only 12km from Bloemhof Dam. We are ideally located for Bloemhof Nature Reserve and many other places of interest. Bird watching, fishing and golf are opposite the guest house.

ALMAR GAME RANCH

Almar Exclusive Game Ranch is located on a game farm in the Bloemhof district, in a malaria free area that is away from the busy city life. We are situated between Bloemhof and Christiana on the N12/Treasure Route, in the south eastern corner of the North West Province.

We offer facilities for: Accommodation, Conferences, Functions, Weddings & Hunting. It is a perfect breakaway, where you can unwind and relax next to the pool while watching game drinking from the waterhole, or go on a hike enjoying the peaceful surroundings, the clean air, blue skies and San rock art. An old ruin dating back to the time of the Anglo Boer War, 1898 to 190 can be found on the farm and it is perfect for taking photos. Night time is best where you can enjoy a braai or relax around a bush fire, listening to the sound of a jackal calling. Birdlife and wildlife such as eland, gemsbok, hartebeest, blesbuck, springbuck, ostrich, waterbuck, blue wildebeest and zebra roam the farm.

We offer spacious, luxury en-suite bedrooms with sliding doors opening onto the pool area. Air-conditioning, DSTV, a bar fridge, coffee and tea making facilities, a lock-up safe and a hairdryer are all available. The honeymoon suite has an en-suite spa bathroom. There is also our luxury self-catering chalets with their own small bomas for barbecues, that can accommodate eight guests per chalet. There is safe undercover parking and pool area.

A lovely small chapel and a function hall form part of our facilities where weddings, conferences and functions can be held.
